Miss Jane Oliver, President
Southeastern Chapter
American Association Law Libraries
The Capitol
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Jane:

I am probably addressing you incorrectly at this point, but not knowing the date of your wedding I fell back on the familiar. I am also assuming that you are winding up things at the State Library and have not yet departed for Athens.

This is just to report that I have sent recruiting letters to our Supreme Court Librarian and to one bar librarian. So far as I can determine there are no other regular law librarians in the State. However, I am keeping a check and will send letters to any that I locate. I did as you suggested and included Southeastern information along with the information on A.A.L.L.

Would love to hear from you when you have time.

Sincerely,

Sarah Leverette
